SECTION 01 • CORE REFERENCE

The MoSCoW Prioritization Framework

When deadlines loom, scope creep threatens project delivery. Applying the MoSCoW framework (Must Have, Should Have, Could Have, Won’t Have this cycle) guarantees that non-negotiable core functionality—such as subscription billing and security authorization—ships on time while secondary features are cleanly scheduled for subsequent sprints.

PRODUCTION TIP: RESILIENCE IN MULTI-TENANT ARCHITECTURES

When implementing Project Management Tracker Template in mission-critical SaaS platforms, ensure that database query footprints and file streams utilize chunked buffering to keep Node.js event-loop memory usage below 80MB per worker.
